

Newton Unplugged & Connected 2010 Events for Families & Kids!

Co-sponsored by the Green Decade, Newton Free Library, the Newton Community Service Center,
Newton Community Pride Committee and the Newton/Angino Community Farm

March 12
(Friday)

"Spring in My Backyard" Workshop 3:30 pm

Celebrate Spring with us in the Art Room by planting seedlings, making a bird feeder from pinecones and a birdhouse from recycled wood!. Ages 5 and up.

-- Newton Cultural Center, 225 Nevada Street, Newtonville

Co-sponsored by the Green Decade, Newton Community Farm and the Newton Pride Committee

March 18
(Thursday)

"Green Story Time" 3:30 pm

Come listen to fun stories about caring for our planet!
Ages 4 — 5. Students for A Greener World will be there.

-- Children's Room, Newton Free Library

Magic Recycled Box Workshop 4 - 5 pm

What can you make from a box? A fort, a train, a robot? Bring your imagination and your friends and see what you can create from recycled materials. Ages 4 and up.

-- Druker Auditorium, Newton Free Library (pre-registration req'd)

Both events co-sponsored by the Green Decade and the Newton Free Library

March 28
(Sunday)

Get Your Bike Ready for Spring 10 am-2 pm

Bike Newton will provide free bike tune-ups to kids, while teaching them how to do their own tune-ups.

-- War Memorial Triangle, Newton City Hall

Co-sponsored by Bike Newton and the Green Decade.

Check out these and other Newton Unplugged Events at www.ncscweb.org.